

Municipality PhD

What is a municipality PhD?

- The municipality finance the PhD student by a contract during agreed period of time
- The PhD student works in the municipality at part time

Pia Köcker

PhD in Disability research. Research manager at PUFF - unit for research and development in Norrköping.

Christina Söderberg

PhD student in Social work. Licentiate degree in october 2015. Development manager at PUFF and expert at social services office in Norrköping

Annsofie Mahrs Träff

PhD student in Ageing and later life.
Development manager at PUFF.

What are the benefits for the local practice?

- Collaboration between the municipality and the university
- Bridges are built between research and the local practice
- The local practice gets support in scientific methods
- Environmental scanning of available scientific literature and research
- Education and research gets closer to practice